DR JOHN OWEN

ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr John Owen is an Orthopaedic Surgeon who graduated from the University of Adelaide in 1973, he then spent some time in the UK and Switzerland and completed his Orthopaedic training in Adelaide in 1984.

Dr Owen was elected president of the Australian Orthopaedic Association in 2012 and during his time he initiated a complete overhaul of the system, setting up a new exam structure and teaching programme. Dr Owen has been an active member in the examining of trainees through the programme. He has also published numerous articles relating to hip replacement surgery and presented his work and research to various organisation including the Australian Orthopaedic Association and international Orthopaedic Associations.

Dr Owen has since retired from his private practice in The Northern Hospital in Melbourne but continues to work part-time participating in medico-legal work and continue his work with trainees and examination.
