ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr James Price completed his Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery at the University of Queensland in 1990. He became a Fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons in 2000 and a Fellow of the Australian Orthopaedic Association in 2008. He has attained CIME accreditation from the American Board of Independent Medical Examiners (ABIME) as well as GEPI accreditation.

Dr Price is currently in private practice in Townsville and is an Orthopaedic Visiting Officer at the Mater Hospital. He is also a Senior Lecturer at James Cook University. Prior to this, Dr Price held the position of Director of Orthopaedic Surgery at the Townsville Hospital. He is a member of the Australian Orthopaedic Foot & Ankle Society, the Chairman of the Medical Advisory Committee at Mater Hospital and a Visiting Medical Officer Representative of the Mater Hospital Board.

Dr Price is able to assess all general orthopaedic injuries. He has a special interest in lower limb, hand and wrist conditions. He is available for consultations in Townsville on a weekly basis.
