BIOGRAPHY

Dr Gregory McGroder is a Consultant Occupational Health Physician in private practice in the Sydney metropolitan area. He is based in Liverpool in South West Sydney but also performs on-site consulting work.

In his private occupational practice Dr McGroder is concerned with the prevention of illness and injury in the workplace. He is also involved with the assessment of injured workers and their fitness for work and occupational rehabilitation. This can involve liaison with treating doctors and coordination of medical management.

Dr McGroder has undergone formal training in impairment assessment and disability evaluation via the Workers Compensation Commission and the Motor Accidents Authority. He has undergone courses run by WorkCover, Sydney University and the American Board of Independent Medical Examiners. His areas of training involve the spine and upper and lower extremities.

Dr McGroder is a Fellow of the Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine (Royal Australian College of Physicians). Via the Workers Compensation Commission he has been appointed an Approved Medical Specialist in General Medical Disputes and the Assessment of Permanent Impairment. He is a NSW WorkCover Approved Injury Management Consultant. He is an approved Medical Assessor for the Motor Accidents Authority of NSW.
