

DR PHILLIP MARK KATELARIS

UROLOGICAL SURGEON

M.B.B.S. (HONS), F.R.A.C.S.

QUALIFICATIONS

MBBS (Hons) University of New South Wales (1980)
Fellowship to the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons (1988)

ACCREDITATIONS

SUB-SPECIALTIES

General urology
Lithotripsy
Urodynamics
Diagnostic prostatic ultrasound
Vasectomy reversal
Impotence management

CURRENT POSITIONS

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

BIOGRAPHY

Dr Katelaris has been a consultant urologist for over 35 years, he is a member of the Urological Society of Australia and New Zealand and the American Urological Association. He is an examiner for the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons. He is a consultant surgeon at the Sydney Adventist Hospital in Wahroonga, Sydney.

Dr Katelaris has published in national and international peer-reviewed surgical journals, has been a commentator on men's health issues for television and radio and has been active in the ongoing education of general practitioners and training medical staff.

He has been a director of the Prostate Cancer Foundation of Australia, was the director of the prostate cancer division of the Institute of Magnetic Resonance Research and is currently the director of the Prostate Cancer Rehabilitation Centre.

Dr Katelaris has broad experience in the field of medicolegal medicine. He has been providing medicolegal reports for many years in relation to medical negligence cases and claims pertaining to workers compensation. He has been called upon to attend court in order to testify on a number of occasions.

LOCATION

Hornsby

ADDITIONAL INFO

Awards

Dr Katelaris was awarded the prestigious Noel Newton medal from the Royal Australasian College of surgeons in 1987 and the Keith Kirkland prize for urological excellence in 1988 from the Urological Association of Australia and New Zealand.