

DR PAUL CARNEY

FORENSIC NEUROSURGEON

MBBS, FRACS, FAFRM RACP, BSC

QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery University of Adelaide (1965)

Fellowship in Neurosurgery Fellow of the Royal Australian College of Surgeons (1971)

Fellow of the Australian Fellowship of Rehabilitation Medicine Royal Australasian College of Physicians (1986)

Bachelor of Science University of Adelaide (2013)

CURRENT POSITIONS

Forensic & Medico-Legal Consultant (2005-Current)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Neurosurgeon (Consulting and Operating) (1982-2004)
Private practice, Adelaide

Consultant Neurosurgeon (1982-1990)
Royal Adelaide Hospital, Adelaide

Senior Lecturer/Lecturer in Neurosurgery (1978-1988)
University of Adelaide, Adelaide

Staff Neurosurgeon (1971-1981)
Royal Adelaide Hospital, Adelaide

Visiting Neurosurgeon, further training (1971)
San Francisco General Hospital, USA

Registrar in Neurosurgery (1970-1971)
Adelaide

Demonstrator & NHMRC Scholar (1968-1969)
Melbourne University, Melbourne

PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

Participant surgeon in Prosthetic Disc Nucleus clinical trial (10 study centers, internationally) (1999)

Undertook pilot study for new cervical cage by company Ray Medica (USA) (1996)

Prospective study of nerve root clearance and fusion in 38 cases of Failed Back syndrome (1996)