

DR MICHAEL CORONEOS

NEUROSURGEON

MBBS 1ST CLASS HONOURS, UQ, FRACS (NEUROSURGERY)

QUALIFICATIONS

Master CIME (AMA 4, 5 & 6)
FWAMS (World Academy Medical Sciences)
FRCS (ENG)
FRCS (GLAG)
FRCSI (IRE)
FACS (USA)
FRCS (EDIN) (Surgical Neurology)
FRACS (Neurosurgery) (1988)
MBBS (1st Class Honours, UQ) 1980

ACCREDITATIONS

WorkCover QLD – IME panel
Guidelines for the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment (GEPI) (2014)
Comcare Accredited (2012)
CIME (ABIME) (2012)
Master CIME (2017)
WorkCover WA – AHP
NSW SIRA DRS, WCC AMS, MAA
NSW MAA Decision Maker

SUB-SPECIALTIES

Brain Injuries & Problems
Peripheral Nerve Injuries & Problems
Spine Injuries & Assessment
Chronic Pain – Neurosurgical Treatment

CURRENT POSITIONS

Visiting Medical Officer

Sunnybank Hospital, Brisbane
Brisbane Private Hospital, Brisbane

National Clinical Examiner

Royal Australian College of Surgeons (RACS), Bond University, Gold Coast

Permanent Impairment Assessor & Neurosurgical Panelist – MAP Neurosurgery

WorkCover Queensland
WorkCover NSW
NSW Motor Accident Authority
Comcare Australia

RACS

National Clinical Examiner
ASSET instructor
ASAM first and second line assessor
Senior Neurosurgeon

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Neurosurgeon

National RACS Examiner

Academy Professor

BIOGRAPHY

Royal Brisbane Hospital and Royal Children's Hospital with FRACS in 1988. He also completed a year of further Dr Michael Coroneos is a senior Brisbane based Neurosurgeon. He graduated in 1980 with MBBS (1st Class Honours) from the University of Queensland. He trained in Neurosurgery at the Princess Alexandra hospital, Mater Hospital training as Senior Registrar in Edinburgh in 1988/1989.

Dr Coroneos holds specialist qualifications in Neurosurgery. He sees claimants with neurosurgical conditions including lumbar conditions (e.g. sciatica, radiculopathy), cervical conditions (e.g. brachial neuralgia) and brain conditions (e.g. brain tumours, cerebral bleeds, stroke). He also sees claimants with pain conditions (e.g. trigeminal neuralgia, neuropathic pain), spinal tumours and peripheral nerve entrapments (e.g. carpal tunnel syndrome, ulnar neuropathy, meralgia paraesthetica).

Dr Coroneos holds seven Fellowships.. He is a senior RACS clinical examiner and educator. He is accredited with the American Board of Independent Medical Examiners, achieving Master CIME (AMA 4, 5 & 6). Comcare and GEPI.

LOCATION

Brisbane