

DR TERRY SAXBY

ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

FRACS, MBBS

QUALIFICATIONS

FRACS (Orth), (1989)

MBBS (First Class Honours) University of Queensland (1981)

ACCREDITATIONS

Worksafe Victoria IME & PI (2018)

Guidelines for the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment (GEPI) (2016)

WorkCover QLD IME panel

AMA 4

AMA 5

CIME (ABIME)

GARP

SUB-SPECIALTIES

Complex Lower Limb Injuries

Plantar Fasciitis

Achilles Tendon Repair

Foot & Ankle

Sports Injuries

CURRENT POSITIONS

Orthopaedic Surgeon – Private Practice (Current)

Foot and Ankle Centre

Brisbane Private Hospital

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Visiting Medical Officer (1993)

Mater Misericordiae Hospital, South Brisbane, QLD

Orthopaedic Surgeon

Brisbane Orthopaedic & Sports Medicine Centre, Brisbane (1992)

Gold Coast Hospital, Southport (1990)

Director of Orthopaedics (1992)

Princess Alexandra Hospital, Woolloongabba, Brisbane

Fellow Foot & Ankle Specialist

The Union Memorial Hospital, Durham, USA (1991)

The Duke University Medical Centre, Durham, USA (1990)

BIOGRAPHY

Dr Terence Saxby is an Orthopaedic Surgeon, with over thirty years' experience having graduated from the University of Queensland in 1981 with first class honours. Dr Saxby specialises in Foot and Ankle injuries and completed a fellowship in Foot & Ankle surgery at the Duke University Centre and at the Union Memorial Hospital.

Dr Saxby currently works from a private practice and performing surgeries at the Brisbane Private Hospital, Brisbane City.

Dr Saxby continues his research and is actively engaged in Education having published over 40 articles, he is currently a Fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons (FRACS) and held the position of President of the Australian Orthopaedic Foot & Ankle Society from 1999 to 2003.

LOCATION

Melbourne - Brisbane