

DR JANE MUIR

OCCUPATIONAL PHYSICIAN | BMBS, FAFOEM, FRACP

Overview

Dr Jane Muir is a Consultant Occupational Physician experienced in determining fitness to work, managing workplace injuries, and facilitating return to work. In private practice, Dr Muir has worked as Medical Advisor to a range of multinational clients in Oil and Gas, Retail, Manufacturing, Mining, Renewables, and the Banking sector. Dr Muir currently serves as Regional Occupational Health Medical Director-International SOS, a recognised partner of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT), where she is responsible for providing clinical support and advice to medics on remote industry sites such as oil rigs and mines.

Dr Muir graduated from Brighton and Sussex Medical School in the UK, and after completing her internship, relocated to Australia in 2010. She commenced specialist training at leading hospitals in NSW, including Prince of Wales Hospital, Gosford and Bankstown Hospitals. She is the recipient of the Deane Southgate Award as a candidate with the highest examination score in Australia and New Zealand, as well as a recipient of the 2024 Ramazzini Prize.

Special Areas of Expertise

- Fitness for Work
- Injury Management
- Health Surveillance

Accreditations

- AMA 4
- AMA 5
- WorkCover (TAS) – Approved Medical Specialist

Current Positions

Regional Occupational Health Medical Director

- International SOS, recognised partner of DFAT

Specialist Occupational Physician

- Private Practice

Professional Experience, Memberships & Committees

- Authorised Health Professional, Rail Industry Workers
- Medical Review Officer (MRO), Australian Medical Review Officers Association (AMROA)
- Examining Medical Officer, Resources Safety and Health, Queensland Government
- Accredited Provider for Offshore Energy, UK Health Assessments
- Fellow, Royal Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine, RACP
- Graduate Diploma, Occupational and Environmental Health, Monash University

Consulting Areas

- Canberra, ACT
- Brisbane, QLD
- Sydney, NSW