

DR Andrea RIHA

CARDIOLOGIST (Vascular Medicine) | MBBS(HONS1) FRACP FCSANZ

Overview

Dr Andrea Riha is a Cardiologist who has been consulting in cardiology and vascular medicine at The Wesley Hospital from 2001 to 2022. She has a particular interest in general cardiology, deep venous thrombosis and pulmonary embolism, leg ulcers as well as cardiac risk factor prevention and women's cardiac issues.

Dr Riha graduated with First Class Honours in Medicine from the University of Queensland in 1993 before completing her internship and residency at the Princess Alexandra Hospital, Brisbane. She went on to advanced training in cardiology at the Townsville General Hospital and the Prince Charles Hospital, Brisbane followed by a fellowship in vascular medicine at Monash Medical Centre, Monash University Melbourne. She was made a Fellow (Cardiology) of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians in 2000.

Dr Riha is fluent in both Czech and German.

Special Areas of Expertise

- General Cardiology
- Deep Venous Thrombosis
- Arterial Thrombosis
- Pulmonary Embolism
- Vasculitis
- Leg Ulcers

Consulting Areas

- Brisbane, QLD

Current Positions

Heart of Australia - visiting consultant (2022 – Current)

Echocardiography Reporting (2003 – Current)

- IMED Network, Brisbane

Holter, ABPM and ECG reporting (2005 – Current)

- Sonic Healthcare